

Cathie specializes in Starting colts and re-habilitating problem horses. She has been training professionally in the New England area for over 17 years. Dr. Cook FRCVS PhD appointed Cathie as the first Bitless Bridle Instructor in the U.S. She is a member of the Cowboy Mounted Shooting Association.

Spring Clinics at Bobcat Farm Cathie Hatrick Anderson
2008 Series
Saturday April 12th April 26th May 10th

Own A Problem Horse?

Youngster Ready For His First Ride?

Does He Take Forever To Load On The Trailer?

These clinics will be tailor made to each participant.
Problems with lunging, leading, standing to be mounted, bad attitude,
spooking, balking, jiggling,
Bucking, and more!

One horse at a time.
Individual attention for each participant. Show me your difficult areas. I'll trouble shoot them first - then we'll work on them together. Experience the joy of immediate results - leave with tools you can take home!

Equine Affaire 2007 Photo by Tony DeCosta

Time: 10:00 – 4:30 pm (Six one hour slots available—1/2 hr break for lunch)

Rain/snow dates will be Sunday at Bobcat Farm or held in an indoor, 15 minutes from Bobcat Farm.

Spectators: $15.00 per day if pre-registered a week before each clinic. Pre-register for all three before April 1st total will be $30.00 (Those who pay at the gate $20.00 per day).

Clinic Horses - 75.00 per hourly session. Big discount if you bring your horse to all three clinics . Clinic horses must pre-register. First come basis! Call Cathie @ (508) 529-4209 please visit www.bobcatfarm.com

